

IN SUMMER GARB SHOVELS SNOW TO "LAST ROSE" TUNE

Ex-Harlemit's Task After Starting Furnace and Chasing Dog in Montclair.

COMMUTERS ARE DAZED.

But Fisher Would Prefer Union Suit to Straw Hat and Linen Duster.

(Special to The Evening World.)
MONTCLAIR, N. J., Dec. 6.—Harold Fisher, an ex-Harlemit flat-dweller, who last month moved into a pretty cottage at Claremont avenue and Forest street, tackled the snow on his front walk this morning while clad in a linen duster and a straw hat. As he shoveled his wife sat by an open window playing "The Last Rose of Summer."

Staid commuters stooped to regard young Mr. Fisher in stupefied amazement as the sole thing out the ends of his linen duster and skyrocketed his straw hat until it looked as if it were balanced on the string that held it to his button hole.

"For goodness sake go in and put on some proper clothing," said one forward suburbanite. "That's no rig to shovel snow in."

The ex-Harlemit flat-dweller let down his shovel and wiped his dripping brow.
"It ain't the proper rig, hey? Why not. I've been up since five o'clock battling with the furnace, which lost me five pounds of hard-earned muscle.
When I got the furnace going the wife missed her dog and I had to follow his tracks one mile across lots. I did that in my shirt sleeves and came back with a temperature of 106."

"The hired girl had let the range go out and there was another job for me. I peered down to my undershirt before I got that range going. If you folks think I'm going to wear an Eskimo kooletah to shovel snow you've got another guess coming. I could go through this job in a union suit and not get a chill."

"My wife is a fresh air fiend and sleeps with all the windows up, so that if the parlor thermometer registers above 50 she's in a dripping perspiration. Don't you old fossils try and tell me what to wear when I tackle eight tons of drifted snow. Anyhow I'm the only man on the block that's doing any shovelling, so out of my way till I finish the job."

"Strike up There 'll Be A Hot Time in The Old Town Tonight," cried the young man to his wife as the throng of jubilant suburbanites gave him way.
"And don't play it too fast," he added.
"For this snow is getting heavier and I can't keep time to the music."

Young Fisher finally finished the job went in and had his breakfast and sought the Erie express half a mile below the station, doing the last one hundred yards in a fraction below ten seconds.

Farewells at Cherbourg.
CHERBOURG, France, Dec. 6.—Rear Admiral Vreeland, commander of the Second Division of the United States Atlantic fleet, to-day exchanged farewell visits with Admiral Kiesel, Maritime Prefect of Cherbourg.

Home for Aged Needs Aid.

The trustees of the Home of the Daughters of Jacob, an institution for the aged on East Broadway, held their thirteenth annual meeting at Cooper Union last night. It was announced that $30,000 a year was required to conduct the home, which sheltered 185 men and women, and that at present there is a deficit of $20,000. To make up this an entertainment and ball will be given on Jan. 29 at Grand Central Palace.

Pleasant, Refreshing, Beneficial.

Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna appeals to the cultured and the well-informed and the healthy because its component parts are simple and wholesome and because it acts without disturbing the natural functions, as it is wholly free from every objectionable quality or substance. In its production a pleasant and refreshing syrup of the figs of California is united with the laxative and carminative properties of certain plants known to act most beneficially on the human system, when its gentle cleansing is desired. To get its beneficial effects, always buy the genuine, for sale by all reputable druggists; one size only, price fifty cents a bottle. The name of the company—California Fig Syrup Co.—is always plainly printed upon the front of every package of the genuine.
